WHEN SHOWN THE "BULLET" FACSIMILE RECEIVED AT SENATOR SPECTER'S OFFICE, [REDACTED] DECRIED THE MESSAGE IT SENT, WHICH TO

HIM REPRESENTED A THREAT. [] DENIED SENDING THE "BULLET" FACSIMILE OR HAVING ANY KNOWLEDGE OF IT. [] SEEMED OBLIVIOUS TO KNOWLEDGE THAT SENATOR SPECTER SUBSCRIBES TO THE "SINGLE BULLET THEORY" IN THE KENNEDY ASSASSINATION INVESTIGATION AND THAT A LOCAL RADIO STATION IN THE PHILADELPHIA AREA HAS RECENTLY BEEN SPOOFING SENATOR SPECTER ON THIS THEORY.

[] ADVISED THAT HE HAS MET SENATOR SPECTER ON A FEW OCCASIONS AT POLITICAL GATHERINGS. HE CLAIMED TO BE AN ADMIRER OF THE SENATOR. THE FACSIMILE TELEPHONE NUMBER (WHICH WOULD INCORPORATE THE TELEPHONE COMPANY AREA CODE CHANGE FROM 215 TO 610 FOR THE COLLEGEVILLE, PA AREA) INDICATED IN THE LETTERHEAD IS IDENTICAL TO THE TELEPHONE NUMBER ON THE "ACTIVITY REPORT"

OFFICE RECEIVING A TELEPHONE FACSIMILE OF A BULLET (THE BULLET FAX) .

ON MAY 9, 1995, [] WAS INTERVIEWED AT THE FBI OFFICE IN LANSDALE, PA. [] FULLY AGREED THAT ON THE MORNING OF APRIL 20, 1995, HE TRIED TO SEND A FACSIMILE TO TELEPHONE NUMBER [] THAT HE TELEPHONED A FEMALE PERSON IN SENATOR SPECTER'S OFFICE TO OBTAIN THE CORRECT FAX NUMBER FOR THE SENATOR'S OFFICE AND THEIR CONVERSATION WAS ARGUMENTATIVE, THAT HE MADE FOUR ATTEMPTS TO SEND A FAX TO [] ALL WITHIN A SIX-MINUTE PERIOD, AND THAT THE LAST ATTEMPT WAS SUCCESSFUL. [] UNDERSTOOD THAT THE "8:26" SHOWING ON THE PARTIAL AND COMPLETE IMAGES OF THE BULLET FAX MATCHED THE TIME OF "8:26" RECORDED ON HIS FAX MACHINE'S TRANSACTION REPORT.

[] CONTINUOUSLY DENIED NO LESS THAN TEN TIMES DURING A ONE AND A HALF HOUR INTERVIEW THAT HE FED THE BULLET FAX INTO HIS FAX MACHINE. EACH TIME HE INSISTED THAT HE INPUTED A SINGLE SHEET CONTAINING A POLITICAL MESSAGE CONCERNING THE FREE MOVEMENT OF ISLAMIC FUNDAMENTALISTS AS OPPOSED TO THE

BULLET FAX CLAIMED TO HAVE BEEN RECEIVED BY SENATOR SPECTER'S STAFF ASSISTANT.

LISTENING TO THE LOGIC EMPLOYED TO THE FACTS, [REDACTED] SUGGESTED THAT HE MAY HAVE CAUSED THE STAFF ASSISTANT IN SENATOR SPECTER'S OFFICE TO RETALIATE AGAINST HIM BECAUSE HE SPOKE NEGATIVELY ABOUT BLACK MUSLIMS IN THE UNITED STATES AND BECAUSE HE CALLED FOR THE ARREST OF LOUIS FARRAKHAN. [REDACTED] FIRST ARGUED THAT THE STAFF ASSISTANT SUPERIMPOSED THE POWER INTERNATIONAL HEADING ON THE POLITICAL MESSAGE HE SENT ON TO THE FULL BULLET FAX IMAGE SO AS TO IMPLICATE HIM IN A CRIMINAL ACT. WHEN CONFRONTED WITH THE INFORMATION THAT THE STAFF ASSISTANT WOULD HAVE HAD TO CREATE SEVERAL FALSE PARTIAL BULLET FAXES, [REDACTED] RETREATED TO ADAMANT DENIALS. b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that sometime after 8:00 a.m., on April 20, 1995, she received a telephone call from an unknown white male, whom she described as being in his late 50's to early 60's. This individual asked, "Is your fax number still 697-0406."

[redacted] advised that the fax number is 597-0406 and queried him as to how he got the fax number. He then stated he received the number from one of his "ward leaders" (possibly meaning a voting ward for political purpose).

b7C

[redacted] went on to say to this individual that the fax number is reserved for congressional use only, at which point the unknown individual got angry and asked why he could not send the fax. [redacted] then advised him that he could, at which point he said, "Fine, you'll be receiving a fax in a couple minutes." Approximately two minutes later, four partial faxes and one complete fax, depicting an enlarged bullet, were transmitted to Senator SPECTER's fax machine.

[] Office Manager, Office of U.S. Senator ARLEN SPECTER, Federal Building, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania (PA), furnished the following information:

b6
b7C

[] stated that sometime after 8:00 a.m., on April 20, 1995, several attempts were made by an unknown individual to send a facsimile to Senator SPECTER's fax machine located in the aforementioned office. On attempt #5, what appears to be a bullet, enlarged to the dimensions of approximately ten inches by two inches, was transmitted over said machine. In total, there were four partial faxes and one complete fax of said bullet. At the top of the fax was a date stamped April 20, 1995, and the name "POWER INTERNATIONAL."

b6
b7C

[] believes these faxes are related to a phone call by an unidentified white male, described as being in his late 50's or early 60's, who had telephoned Senator SPECTER's office several minutes prior to the arrival of the faxes. This same individual indicated that he would send a fax within minutes of the telephone call. This call had been received at Senator SPECTER's office by [] Staff Assistant to Senator SPECTER.

Dear Mr. Kun:

Enclosed for the United States Secret Service is a memorandum describing investigation conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) upon receipt of a complaint that someone had telephone facsimiled the image of a bullet to the local office of United States Senator Arlen Specter on April 20, 1995, one day after the bomb exploded at the Federal Building in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

This information is being passed along to your office since Senator Specter is currently an announced Presidential candidate. [redacted] the subject of the FBI case, told FBI agents he had met the Senator a few times at political gatherings. [redacted] who claimed he had sent political messages to President Bill Clinton and other political figures, makes a very polite, businesslike appearance and effuses credibility in his speech and manner. He would be quickly received at any political gathering.

b7C

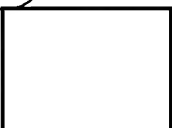

[redacted] told the FBI that there exists in his household one .22 caliber automatic pistol. He said he bought the weapon many years ago for his wife's personal protection when he was spending a lot of time away from home traveling on business.

UNITED STATES SENATOR ARLEN SPECTER - VICTIM
EXTORTION

b6

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania (PA), initiated an investigation on April 20, 1995, when a staff assistant in United States Senator Arlen Specter's office complained that the image of a bullet was telephone facsimiled into the Senator's Philadelphia office at 8:15 a.m. (based upon the clock setting in the office facsimile machine). The complete "bullet fax" succeeded three previous facsimiles yielding partial images of the bullet. The facsimiles carried the heading, "Power International," and electronically indicated at the Senator's office that the facsimile of the bullet emanated from telephone line [Redacted] (investigation later determined that this line was subscribed to by [Redacted] doing business as [Redacted])

b6

Minutes prior to facsimiles being received at the Senator's office, the staff assistant received a telephone call from an unidentified male described as probably being a white male in his late fifties. Basically, the caller, who sought the correct facsimile number for the Senator's office, became annoyed when he was told that [Redacted] was normally reserved for Congressional use. The caller curtly told the staff assistant that a facsimile would follow their telephone conversation. Within ten minutes after the telephone call, the said facsimiles, including the "bullet fax," were received.

[redacted] was interviewed at his residence on May 8, 1995. He was extremely cooperative and immediately recalled his conversation with a person in Senator Specter's Philadelphia office on the morning of April 20, 1995. His rendition of that conversation seemed identical to the report provided to the FBI by the staff assistant in Senator Specter's office. [redacted] estimated he took about 15 minutes to draft a letter after his telephone call and sent it via facsimile to [redacted] at 8:24 a.m. and 8:26 a.m. (according to his facsimile machine transaction reports), on April 20, 1995. [redacted] recalled that there are two transaction reports because there was a problem with both attempts to send the facsimile. The two pages indicated at 8:26 a.m. may have been because he quickly refiled the document when it did not seem to transmit properly.

[redacted] furnished copies of his said transmitted letter, facsimile machine transaction reports, and a single sheet of Power International letterhead paper. The letter he claimed to have transmitted reads as follows,

b7C

"April 20, 95 Arlen Specter Wm. Green Federal Bldg. 600 Arch St. Phila. PA 19106 via fax 215 597-0406 Please make every effort to bring legislation to restrict the movements of the suspicious Islamic, fundamentalist groups. In addition a close watch of the black Muslim groups, and Muslim leaders who openly incite hatred against our country, or racial groups, etc. Should be arrested. In the 2nd World War we placed whole groups, families of Japanese Americans in concentration camps and there was no sabotage evident after Pearl Harbor. However we let these fundamentalist groups move freely through the U S after the World Trade Center bombing. Did we think it was not going to happen again!

Regards [redacted]
[redacted]

[redacted] stated he is embarrassed by his hasty reaction to blame Islamic fundamentalist groups for the Oklahoma City bomb blast.

b6
b7C

[redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] presented a thick file folder containing communications asking political action, which were sent to various political figures, including President Bill Clinton. He said that the Specter facsimile is not unlike other requests of political figures he has made in the past.

When shown the "bullet fax" received at Senator Specter's office, [redacted] decried the message it sent, which to him represented a threat. [redacted] denied sending the "bullet fax" or having any knowledge of it. [redacted] seemed oblivious to knowledge that Senator Specter subscribes to the "single bullet theory" in the John F. Kennedy assassination investigation and that a local radio station in the Philadelphia area has recently been spoofing Senator Specter on this theory.

[redacted] advised he has met Senator Specter on a few occasions at political gatherings. He claimed to be an admirer of the Senator. [redacted] felt the message conveyed by the "bullet fax" is not consistent with the political action messages which he has sent in the past and it is something out of character for him to author.

b7C

[redacted]

b6
b7C

identical to the telephone number on the facsimile activity report produced by Senator Specter's office facsimile machine for April 20, 1995. [redacted] claimed that this is a telephone line he used in his business until it fell upon financial hard times in September, 1991. [redacted] had no explanation for this coincidence. He suggested that the "bullet fax" may have tracked over his political message.

b7C

It is noteworthy that the actual "bullet fax" has the heading "PR-20-95 THU 8:26 Power International." This time stamp matches the facsimile action report time stamp of 8:26 a.m. provided by [redacted]. The facsimile seemed to infer the "bullet fax" was sent from [redacted] machine and that he neglected to deprogram Power International and the facsimile number from his

b6
b7C

[redacted]

b6
b7C

machine. Senator Specter's office only received the "bullet fax." The political facsimile that [redacted] said he sent was never received.

[redacted]

b3
b6
b7C

On May 9, 1995, [redacted] was interviewed at the FBI office in Lansdale, PA. [redacted] fully agreed that on the morning of April 20, 1995, he tried to send a facsimile to telephone number (215) 697-0406; that he telephoned a female person in Senator Specter's office to obtain the correct telephone facsimile number for the Senator's office and their conversation was argumentative; that he made four attempts to send a facsimile to (215) 597-0406, all within a six minute period; and that the last attempt was successful. [redacted] further agreed that in the last attempt, he experienced a problem and had to refeed the facsimile into the machine. [redacted] understood that the "8:26" showing on the partial and complete images of the "bullet fax" matched the time of "8:26" recorded on his facsimile machine's transaction report.

b7C

[redacted] continuously denied no less than ten times during a one and one-half hour interview that he fed the "bullet fax" into his facsimile machine. Each time he insisted that he inputted a single sheet containing a political message and not the "bullet fax" claimed to have been received by Senator Specter's staff assistant.

b7C

Listening to the logic employed to the facts, [redacted] suggested that he may have caused the staff assistant in Senator Specter's office to retaliate against him because he spoke negatively about black Muslims in the United States and because he called for the arrest of Louis Farrakhan. [redacted] first argued that the staff assistant superimposed the Power International heading on the political message he sent onto the full "bullet fax" image, so as to implicate him in a criminal act. When confronted with the information that the staff assistant would have had to create several false partial "bullet faxes," [redacted] retreated to adamant denials. He then rebounded with the suggestion that the "bullet fax" tracked over the political message he sent.

[redacted]

b6
b7C

b7C

On May 17, 1995, the United States Attorney's Office in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PA, verbally declined criminal prosecution of [redacted] for different reasons, with respect to the interstate communications laws, assault of a United States Senator, and furnishing false information to FBI agents.

[redacted] stated that after much consideration, he felt strongly that he is being framed by the staff assistant in Senator ARLEN SPECTER's office. [redacted] strenuously denied that he had been the person responsible for sending "the bullet fax" to Senator SPECTER's office on the morning of April 20, 1995.

[redacted] advised he had transmitted a letter via telephone facsimile to Senator SPECTER's office on the morning of April 20, 1995. He recalled telephoning the Senator's office to ascertain the correct facsimile number. A staff person corrected one digit of the number, but told him this line was normally used for Congressional business. [redacted] said he told the staff person that this was Congressional information he wished to transmit.

[redacted] stated he originally received the facsimile number for the Senator's office from a friend, [redacted]

b6

[redacted] stated that after confirming the Senator's telephone facsimile number, he spent approximately 15 minutes drafting a letter which he transmitted by telephone facsimile to Senator SPECTER's office at 8:26 a.m.

[redacted] produced copies of his residential telephone facsimile transaction reports showing transmittals to [redacted] at 8:24 a.m. (one page) and 8:26 a.m. (two pages).

[redacted] advised he attempted to send his letter at 8:24 a.m., but due to a malfunction, it was not transmitted. He said he had similar problems again at 8:26 a.m., but was finally successful. The two page indication at 8:26 a.m., on the transaction report, apparently registered because he refiled his single page communication quickly after the malfunction.

[REDACTED] furnished a machine copy of the letter he drafted for Senator SPECTER. [REDACTED] claimed he was embarrassed by its contents because it hastily accused Islamic fundamentalists of the Oklahoma City, Oklahoma (OK), Federal Office Building bombing and asked for a legal restriction of their movements around the United States.

b7C

The letter carried [REDACTED] as Chairman of the Evansburg Civic Association. [REDACTED] advised this organization was more active several years ago than it is now, but it still exists.

[REDACTED] drew his letter from a thick file containing what he described as a lot of political messages he sends to various political figures, including President BILL CLINTON. Asked if he knew Senator SPECTER personally, [REDACTED] initially responded by saying, "Yes." Then he qualified his response by saying that he met the Senator on a few occasions at political gatherings. [REDACTED] claimed to admire the Senator.

b7C

A machine copy of a telephone facsimile of a bullet (hereinafter "the bullet fax") was shown to [REDACTED] and he was told that this is a copy of a facsimile which was received at Senator SPECTER's office in Philadelphia, PA, on April 20, 1995. [REDACTED] immediately described "the bullet fax" as a "threat." [REDACTED] denied sending "the bullet fax" or having any knowledge of it.

b7C

It was suggested to [REDACTED] that the sender of "the bullet fax" may have been doing this as part of a spoof of the Senator's "single bullet theory" of the JOHN F. KENNEDY assassination investigation which is constantly carried on a local radio station in the Philadelphia area. [REDACTED] was oblivious to this information as though he had never heard of it. He did not seem amused by it and hardly commented, except to say that "the bullet fax" was out of character for him.

b7C

While discussing his business interests, [REDACTED] mentioned POWER INTERNATIONAL (the indicated sender of "the bullet fax"). [REDACTED] explained that POWER INTERNATIONAL was originally a Chicago, Illinois (IL), company engaged in the diesel engineering business. In short, the company acted as a consultant to INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER. He recalled that he experienced financial hardship and bankruptcy in 1991 and POWER INTERNATIONAL has been a dormant company since that time. [REDACTED] provided a sample of POWER INTERNATIONAL letterhead, which carries a business telephone number of (215) 489-4059, with a telephone facsimile number of (215) 489-6897 (the number registered four times on Senator SPECTER's office facsimile machine activity report between 8:09 a.m and 8:15 a.m., April 20, 1995).

b7C

[REDACTED] stated that the telephone numbers listed in the POWER INTERNATIONAL letter head were discontinued in or about September, 1991. After (215) 489-4059 was discontinued, [REDACTED] stated his friends and business associates erroneously left messages with this number and were inadvertently fooled into believing that it was [REDACTED] answering machine. Apparently, the individual who had inherited [REDACTED] old number was named "ED," the same name he uses. [REDACTED] mentioned this as an example where electronics can sometimes be misleading.

b7C

[REDACTED] had no explanation for the POWER INTERNATIONAL number being recorded on the telephone facsimile machine activity log in Senator SPECTER's office at the time "the bullet fax" was received. He suggested that "the bullet fax" may have tracked over his political message. Further, he eliminated others from using his telephone facsimile machine, including [REDACTED] who occasionally stays at the [REDACTED] residence. [REDACTED] is engaged to [REDACTED] daughter. [REDACTED] identified [REDACTED] home telephone number as [REDACTED]

b6

[REDACTED] continuously denied no less than ten times during a one and a half hour interview that he fed "the bullet fax" into his facsimile machine. Each time, he insisted that he inputted a single sheet containing a political message concerning the free movement of Islamic fundamentalists as opposed to "the bullet fax" claimed to have been received by Senator SPECTER's staff assistant.

b7C

Listening to the logic employed to the facts, [REDACTED] suggested that he may have caused the staff assistant in Senator SPECTER's office to retaliate against him because he spoke negatively about black Muslims in the United States and because he called for the arrest of LOUIS FARRAKHAN. [REDACTED] first argued that the staff assistant superimposed the POWER INTERNATIONAL heading on the political message he sent onto the full "bullet fax" image so as to implicate him in a criminal act. When confronted with the information that the staff assistant would have had to create several false, partial "bullet faxes," [REDACTED] retreated to adamant denials.

[REDACTED] rebounded with the suggestion that "the bullet fax" tracked over the political message facsimile he sent. [REDACTED] understood that even if that were possible, the POWER INTERNATIONAL heading on "the bullet fax" would be extremely difficult to factor out. Once again, [REDACTED] withdrew to intractable denials that he sent "the bullet fax."

b6
b7C

During the course of this meeting, [REDACTED] claimed he admired Senator SPECTER as a politician and United States Senator. When asked to identify one SPECTER achievement that put the Senator in his high esteem, [REDACTED] was unable to produce one such achievement that gained his admiration after minutes of consideration.

[REDACTED] agreed that no one else in his household would have accessed his facsimile machine on the morning of April 20, 1995. As stated, he agreed he telephoned the Senator's office and he was the person who sent facsimiles to the Senator's office at times indicated that morning.

completely support the statement of Senator Specter's Staff Assistant and the various electronic records of the said transmissions which resulted in Senator Specter's Office receiving a telephone facsimile of a bullet (the bullet fax).

On 5/9/95 [REDACTED] was interviewed at the FBI Office in Lansdale, PA. [REDACTED] fully agreed that on the morning of 4/20/95, he tried to send a facsimile to telephone number 215-597-0406, that he telephoned a female person in Senator Specter's Office to obtain the correct fax number for the Senator's Office and their conversation was argumentative, that he made four attempts to send a fax to 215-597-0406, all within a six-minute period, and that the last attempt, he had experienced a problem and had to re-feed the fax into the machine. [REDACTED] understood that the "8:26" showing on the partial and complete images of the bullet fax matched the time of "8:26" recorded on his fax machine's transaction report.

[REDACTED] continuously denied no less than 10 times during a one and a half-hour interview that he fed the bullet fax into his fax machine. Each time he insisted that he inputted a single sheet containing a political message concerning the free movement of Islamic Fundamentalists as opposed to the bullet fax claimed to have been received by Senator Specter's Staff Assistant.

Listening to the logic employed to the facts, [] suggested that he may have caused the Staff Assistant in Senator Specter's Office to retaliate against him because he spoke negatively about Black Muslims in the U.S. and because he called for the arrest of Louis Farrakhan. [] first argued that the Staff Assistant superimposed the power international heading on the political message he sent on to the full bullet fax image so as to implicate him in a criminal act. When confronted with the information that the Staff Assistant would have had to create several false partial bullet faxes, [] retreated to adamant denials. He then rebounded with the suggestion that the bullet fax tracked over the political message fax he sent.
